Important Instructions to Candidates

7. The following candidates are eligible to attend the Mop-Up Counselling:

    - Candidates who secured a seat in an earlier phase of counselling and wish to move to another college as per their merit, preferences and applicable rules of reservation.
    - Candidates who participated in earlier phases of counselling but could not secure a seat.
    - Candidates who did not participate in the earlier phases of counselling.
    - Candidates who were allotted a seat but did not report to the allotted college or pay the prescribed fee.
    - Candidates who were allotted a seat in an earlier phase but subsequently cancelled their admission.

8. Candidates are advised to visit the University website (www.skltghu.ac.in) regularly for updates regarding the availability of seats and other counselling-related information.
9. Candidates shall read the University Prospectus thoroughly before attending counselling and ensure that they satisfy the prescribed eligibility conditions.
10. Candidates who have already secured admission in an earlier phase may participate in subsequent counselling rounds for a better college, subject to merit, reservation rules and seat availability.
11. During the sliding process from one college to another, vacancies may arise in categories that are not reflected in the initially published seat availability position. Such vacancies shall also be considered for admission.
12. Candidates shall attend counselling on the scheduled date and time notified by the University.
13. Candidates shall report at the counselling centre at least one hour before the scheduled time.
14. Candidates must produce all relevant original certificates at the time of counselling. Failure to produce the required certificates may result in rejection of the candidature.
15. Candidates belonging to EWS, BC, SC and ST categories shall submit two sets of photocopies of their relevant certificates, in addition to producing the originals for verification.
16. Admission shall be based strictly on merit, the applicable rules of reservation, eligibility conditions and the availability of seats.
17. Mere attendance or participation in counselling shall not guarantee admission.
18. Candidates selected for admission shall pay the prescribed fee, including applicable deposits, immediately. Failure to pay the fee within the stipulated time shall result in cancellation of the allotted seat.
19. Sliding and shifting from one college to another shall be carried out based on merit, applicable reservation rules, candidate preferences and seat availability.
20. Candidates who are allotted a seat in a different college shall pay the differential fee, if any, as prescribed by the University.
21. Selection under EWS, BC, SC and ST categories shall be subject to verification and clearance of the respective social status by the competent authorities of the Government of Telangana.
22. The guidelines issued by the Government of Telangana and the University from time to time shall be followed scrupulously.
23. Counselling shall be conducted manually at the notified venue. Candidates are required to attend in person.
24. Candidates shall attend counselling at their own cost. Only one parent or guardian shall be permitted to accompany the candidate during the counselling process.
25. Candidates shall not rely on any middlemen, consultants or unauthorized persons for securing admission. All admissions shall be made by the University strictly through the prescribed counselling process.
26. If any information furnished or any certificate submitted by a candidate is found to be false or misleading, the University reserves the right to cancel the admission and initiate appropriate action as per the applicable rules.

27. The University shall not be responsible for information published on websites other than its official website.
28. Candidates who require their original certificates for attending other counselling processes may request their temporary return by submitting an undertaking to the University/college. The certificates must be returned within the stipulated period, failing which the admission shall be liable for cancellation.
29. Candidates are advised to obtain the official contact details of the concerned college authorities after securing admission for further communication.
30. Candidates who fail to attend counselling on the scheduled date and time shall forfeit their claim for admission under the respective counselling round.
31. Candidates reporting late shall submit a written explanation to the counselling authorities indicating the time of their arrival. Their candidature shall be considered subject to the decision of the counselling authorities.
32. The notification shall be treated as individual intimation to all eligible candidates. No separate intimation shall be issued.
33. The University does not guarantee employment to candidates admitted to the programme.

For any clarification regarding the counselling process, candidates may contact the University through the official contact details published on its website.
