IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

- Candidates shall report at the counselling venue at least one hour before the scheduled time. They must attend in person on the notified date and time. Failure to attend may result in loss of consideration for the available seat.
- Candidates shall bring all original certificates/documents along with the required number of self-attested photocopies as listed in the above check list of documents
- Candidates claiming the Farmers' Quota or any special reservation shall produce the original supporting certificates in the prescribed formats. Incomplete, unsigned or unauthenticated certificates may result in rejection of the claim under the relevant quota.
- Candidates belonging to reserved categories shall produce valid certificates issued by the competent authorities. Admission under EWS, BC, SC and ST categories, wherever applicable, shall be subject to verification/validation by the competent Government authorities.
- Candidates shall read the SKLTGHU prospectus and admission instructions carefully before attending counselling. The prospectus and updates shall be available on the University admission portal.
- Allotment, sliding and shifting from one college to another shall be made strictly according to merit, reservation rules, candidate preferences, eligibility and availability of seats.
- If a candidate cancels admission after the Mop-Up / Walk-In round, the refund/forfeiture of fees and any cancellation charges shall be governed by the University rules and the fee-refund policy notified for the admission year.
- The University reserves the right to verify all information and certificates submitted by candidates. If any information or document is found to be false, forged or misleading, the candidature/admission is liable to be cancelled and appropriate action may be initiated as per law.
- Candidates and parents are advised to rely only on information published through the official SKLTGHU website/admission portal. The University shall not be responsible for information circulated through unofficial websites, agents, middlemen or other persons.
- Admissions shall be made by the University through the notified counselling process only. No agent, consultant or intermediary is authorized to secure admission on behalf of the University.
- The counselling process shall be conducted manually at the notified venue unless the University announces otherwise. Candidates shall make their own arrangements to attend and shall bear their travel and other expenses.
- Only one parent/guardian may accompany a candidate, subject to the arrangements and instructions at the counselling venue.
- The counselling process may continue beyond the scheduled hours. Candidates and parents/guardians are therefore advised to make suitable arrangements.
- Calling candidates in excess of the number of vacant seats does not guarantee admission. Admission is subject to merit, eligibility, reservation rules and the availability of seats at the time of allotment.
- The University may retain original certificates for admission processing as per its procedure. If originals are temporarily returned against an undertaking for attending another counselling, they must be resubmitted within the period stipulated by the University; failing which the allotment/admission may be cancelled.
- No separate individual intimation will be sent to each applicant. This notification shall be treated as sufficient notice to all eligible applicants.
- The University does not guarantee employment to candidates admitted to the programme.
